On October 15, 1975, [REDACTED] Office of the President, advised that the applicant, ALBERT JAMES WOHLSTETTER, is a University Professor with tenure in the Department of Political Science and has been so employed since 1965. He is in residence two to three quarters per calendar year.

On October 16, 1975, Mr. KENNETH PREWITT, Chairman, Department of Political Science, advised that he has known the applicant since 1965 as a colleague and only since July 1, 1975, as his department head. He said he considers the applicant to be a fair, judicious, attractive gentleman whose loyalty and moral character are above reproach. He is an effective faculty member when on campus in residence. He stated the applicant was in residence during the following quarters for the years indicated:

Academic Year	1969 ~ 1970	~	Autumn and Spring
"	"	1970 ~ 1971	~ Autumn
"	"	1971 ~ 1972	~ Autumn, Winter and Spring
"	"	1972 ~ 1973	~ Autumn and Spring
"	"	1973 ~ 1974	~ Autumn and Spring
"	"	1974 ~ 1975	~ Spring
"	"	1975 ~ 1976	~ Summer and Spring

Mr. PREWITT related he knows nothing of an adverse nature concerning the applicant and recommends him for a position of trust involving the national security.

On October 16, 1975, D. GALE JOHNSON, Chairman, Department of Economics and Special Assistant to the President and Dean of Faculties, advised he has known the applicant since he arrived on campus. The applicant is in residence about two quarters per year. He is an unquestionably loyal American of excellent moral character. He knows nothing of an adverse nature concerning the applicant and his recommendation when interviewed about five years ago has not changed.

On October 16, 1975, Mr. MORTON KAPLAN, Professor, Department of Political Science, Chairman Committee on International Relations and Director of the Arms Control and Foreign Policy Seminar of the Center for Policy Study, advised that he was interviewed regarding the applicant in 1970. He said the applicant has held top security clearances from numerous prior Federal appointments. He is expertly qualified in his field, highly regarded, technically competent and discreet. He said he is most qualified security-wise to serve the United States in matters of national security and he would continue to so recommend him.

On October 29, 1975, Mr. D. J. R. BRUCKNER, Vice-President for Public Affairs and Director of the Center for Policy Study, advised he has known the applicant personally for three years as a colleague and Fellow of the Center for Policy Study. He said the applicant is a respected and effective member of the Center, involved in seminars on Arms Control. He takes his work seriously and is highly competent in his field. He said he knows nothing of an adverse nature

[REDACTED] Center for Policy Study, advised that the center is a sort of "think tank" of about fifty university faculty members, elected as fellows of the center. They are not compensated for their services to the center. The applicant has been a member since 1970. She said she has known the applicant about two years. He appears to have the respect of academic colleagues and very interested and involved in his research and writing. She said she considers the applicant to be a patriotic, concerned and knowledgeable citizen of good moral character. She stated she knows nothing of an adverse nature concerning him and recommends him for a position of trust effecting United States security.

On October 29, 1975, Mrs. MARGARET ROSENHEIM, Professor, School of Social Service Administration and former Director of the Center for Study of Welfare Policy, advised she met the applicant about five years ago when he was appointed as a fellow of the center. The applicant was engaged in an analysis of census data regarding population groups and subsequently presented a seminar of his findings. She said she regards him as an unbiased, concerned citizen and faculty professor of the highest moral character. She said she would have no reason to question his loyalty to the United States, knows nothing of an adverse nature concerning him and recommends him for a position of trust involving the national security.

On October 30, 1975, Mr. RICHARD C. SHELDON, Director of the Division of Humanities and Arts, advised that he met with the applicant on two occasions for approximately an hour and a half each time. The applicant was hired to review a study entitled the Finances of the Performing Arts. There were two volumes involved. The applicant could not finish his second assignment. The assignment between March 1, 1974, and April 30, 1974, was not completed due to a mutual agreement between the applicant and Mr. SHELDON, wherein the applicant would receive compensation if he had the time to perform the required work on the study.

The applicant did not have the time to do the work justice according to Mr. SHELDON and only gave his impression of the study and received no monetary compensation.

Mr. SHELDON advised that he knows of no derogatory information concerning the applicant and that the applicant is known by reputation as being a very competent and knowledgeable individual. Mr. SHELDON advised that based upon his association with the applicant, he recommends him for a position of trust with the Federal Government.

DETAILS: AT WASHINGTON, D.C.EMPLOYMENTb6
b7C

On November 13, 1975, SA [REDACTED] caused a search to be made of the files of the Administrative Office, National Security Council and was advised that there was no record located for the applicant.

The files of the Office of Security (SY), Department of State, reviewed by SA [REDACTED] on November 11, 1975, disclose the additional information that on February 19, 1970, the Office of Personnel, Department of State requested SY to process the applicant as a Consultant with the Department of State. SY conducted some background investigation concerning him in March 1970, including an interview with him, with favorable results, prior to cancellation of the investigation in view of SY's receipt of the results of a then current FBI investigation.

SY granted him final clearance for ~~Top Secret~~ on July 1, 1970 as a Consultant, valid for 180 days only, unless appointed in the meantime. SY granted him Confidential clearance on December 21, 1971 as a non-employee for participation in a Strategy Relationships Conference on December 10, 1973 as a non-employee for discussions with the Deputy Secretary of State and officials of the Bureau of Politico-Military Affairs, Department of State, on October 11, 1973.

On August 30, 1973 the Civil Service Commission requested SY to conduct overseas investigation for the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency (ACDA). This was completed in October 1973 with favorable results. In October, 1973 SY slaos did a name check for ACDA, eith favorable results.

On November 29, 1973 the Office of Personnel requested SY to process the applicant as a Consultant and after a review of its files, SY on December 19, 1973 granted him final Clearance for ~~Top Secret~~ for such proposed purpose, valid for 180 days only, unless appointed in the meantime.

The Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (CU), Department of State requested SY on April 11, 1974 to run a name check on WOHLSTETTER for a proposed grant under P.L. 87-256. SY notified CU on July 25, 1974 that it had developed no material derogatory information.

The SY file does not show any termination of clearance concerning this individual; however, SY has advised that all its clearances terminate when the person's relationship with the Department of State terminates.
